St. James's, November 12, 1760.

THIS Day the following Addreſs of the Univerſity of Cambridge was preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, their Chancellor; accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Sandby, Maſter of Magdalen College, Vice-Chancellor; the Right Hon. the Earl of Hardwicke, High Steward; and ſeveral of the Nobility, Students in the Univerſity; the Biſhops of Norwich, Litchfield and Coventry, Cheſter, St. David's, Chicheſter, Peterborough, and Briſtol; with a great Number of Heads of Houſes, Doctors, and Maſters of Arts; all in their proper Univerſity Habits.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of the Univerſity of Cambridge.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of your Univerſity of Cambridge, lamenting, with the ſincereſt Grief, the Death of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign; and being truly ſenſible of the Bleſſings we enjoyed under His glorious Reign, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence, to teſtify our deepeſt Concern, for the ſevere, and moſt affecting Loſs, which your Majeſty and theſe Kingdoms have ſuſtained by that melancholy Event; and, with Hearts full of the ſincereſt Duty, and moſt affectionate Zeal, to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

The remarkable Proſperity and Succeſs, which, by the Divine Providence, have been vouchſafed to us, through the long, and illuſtrious Reign of your Royal Grandfather; the acknowledged Lenity, Moderation, and Wiſdom, of His Government; that uniform Regard to our Laws and Conſtitution, which was the invariable Rule of His Conduct; that conſtant and inviolable integrity, with which His Engagements were fulfilled; that Firmneſs, and Reſolution, with which His Counſels were directed; as they were productive of the moſt invaluable Bleſſings, juſtly demand the moſt affectionate Remembrance, and grateful Acknowledgments, of a dutiful and happy People.

We, of this Univerſity, in particular, who have been diſtinguiſhed by the moſt ſignal Marks of His eſpecial Favor, who have been honored by repeated Acts of His Royal Munificence; who have ever experienced the continued Support and Encouragement of His moſt gracious Countenance and Protection, can never be ſo unmindful of our Duty and Obligations, as not to retain the moſt lively Impreſſions, and, on all Occaſions, teſtify the warmeſt Senſe of Gratitude towards our Royal Benefactor.

The pleaſing Hopes, ſo juſtly raiſed in us, by the Conſideration of your Majeſty's Princely Virtues, early implanted, and ſucceſsfully cultivated; of your eminent and publick Regard to our Holy Religion, and your well-known Affection for our excellent Conſtitution in Church and State, have, by your Majeſty's moſt gracious, and ſeaſonable Declaration in Council, been improved into the ſtrongeſt Confidence, that every Thing dear and valuable to us, will be preſerved, in its full Extent, under your Majeſty's Auſpicious Government.

Engaged as we are, by every Principle of Duty, we will not fail to offer up our moſt devout and fervent Prayers, that your Majeſty's gracious Intentions to promote the Welfare of your Subjects, and to ſupport the Dignity of your Crown, may be ever attended with Succeſs; that the dreadful Effects of the preſent deſtructive, though neceſſary, War, may be ſucceeded by the laſting Bleſſings of an honorable and happy Peace; and that your Majeſty's Throne may be ever fixed on that moſt ſolid and glorious Foundation, on which it now ſtands, the united Affections of a free and loyal People.

Permit us, Sir, with all Humility, to add our moſt earneſt and faithful Aſſurances to your Majeſty, that your Univerſity of Cambridge, ever firmly united in Principles of Loyalty and Affection, to your Royal and Illuſtrious Family, will invariably perſevere in the moſt dutiful Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Government; and that our zealous and unwearied Endeavours ſhall be ever employed to impreſs deeply on the Minds of the riſing Generation, entruſted to our Care, the moſt ſincere and awful Reverence for our Holy Religion; the moſt zealous Regard for that happy Government under which we live; and the trueſt Sentiments of Allegiance, Fidelity, and Affection, to your Sacred Majeſty; that ſo, under the ſettled Influence of theſe good Principles, and by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Counſels, the Bleſſings which we now enjoy may be perpetuated under the Government of your Royal and Auguſt Houſe.

Given under our Common Seal, this 10th Day of November, 1760.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to give this moſt gracious Anſwer.

I Thank you for this very Dutiful and Loyal Addreſs; the Zeal and Affection you ſhew to my Perſon, Family, and Government, and the Aſſurances you give me, of educating the Youth under your Care, in a due Reverence to our moſt Holy Religion, and in Principles of Zeal and Affection to our happy Eſtabliſhment in Church and State, are moſt acceptable to me, and cannot fail of recommending you to my Favour and Protection.

His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive them very graciouſly: And they had all the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

Leiceſter Houſe, Nov. 13.

This Day the Univerſity of Cambridge waited upon her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales; and his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, their Chancellor, made their Compliments of Condoleance and Congratulation in the following Speech.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

WE, the Chancellor, Maſters, and Scholars, of the Univerſity of Cambridge, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Royal Highneſs, upon the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign; and to congratulate your Royal Highneſs upon the happy Acceſſion of the King your Son, to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

Nothing could alleviate our deep Concern, and repair our affecting Loſs, but that entire Senſe we have of His Majeſty's Princely Virtues, early cultivated, and brought to a happy Maturity, by the pious, and maternal Care of your Royal Highneſs.

Permit

[Price Six-Pence.]

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

Dr. Browne the Vice-Chancellor, accompanied by the Earl of Litchfield their High Steward, his Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, his Grace the Archbishop of York, and the following Noblemen and Bishops, who had been formerly, or are at present, of the said University, viz. Their Graces the Duke of Beaufort, Duke of Leeds, and Duke of Queensberry, the Marquis of Carnarvon, the Earls of Suffolk, Northampton, Cardigan, Abingdon, Dartmouth, Aylesford, and Bath, Lords Greville Montagu, Say and Sele, Wenman, Parker, Beauchamp, North, and Dungarvon; the Bishops of Durham, Salisbury, St. Asaph, Worcester, Oxford, Bangor, and Ossory, Lords Talbot and Mansfield, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, and Lord Chief Justice Willes; together with many of the younger Sons of the Nobility, and Baronets, and a great Number of the Heads of Houses, Doctors in Divinity, Law, and Physic, the two Proctors, and many Masters of Arts, and Batchelors of Civil Law, all in their proper Academical Habits, attended by Sir Roger Newdigate, Bart. and Peregrine Palmer, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the Chancellor, Masters and Scholars of your Majesty's most faithful and loyal University of Oxford, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence with our humble Tribute of unfeigned Duty and Allegiance; and with our most cordial Congratulations on your Majesty's happy Accession to the Throne of your Ancestors; in full Persuasion, that your Majesty alone can compensate for the otherwise irretrievable Loss these Kingdoms must have sustained, in the unexpected Death of your Royal Grandfather: A Prince, who was called from His People, at a Time when he had filled their Hearts with the utmost Joy; in the Midst of their Triumphs, Thanksgivings, and Congratulations: Who lived to see His Counsels blessed with Success, and His Arms with Victory in every Part of the Globe: Who lived to see the British Name, under His Auspices, advanced to the highest Pitch of Dignity and Grandeur, and concluded His long and prosperous Reign, when full of Years, and full of Glory.

Our Eyes are now turned on your Majesty's Sacred Person, the Heir of His Crown, His Virtues, and His Fame; ordained by the peculiar Favour of Providence to finish and compleat what is still wanting towards the Establishment of General Tranquility, and the Attainment of an Honourable and Lasting Peace; to repair the Ruins and Ravages of a destructive War, and to secure the domestic Happiness of your Subjects, by preserving and strengthening the Constitution both in Church and State.

Such extensive Blessings we may reasonably hope from your Majesty's innate Goodness and acknowledged Virtue; from your tendereſt Affection and Regard for this your native Country; from those Principles of Religion and Morality, implanted in your Royal Breast by the Precepts and Example of your much lamented Father; cultivated from your early Youth by the Instructions of pious and learned Prelates; and happily perfected under the Guardian Care and Inspection of a most excellent Princess.

Your Majesty, having thus happily experienced the Benefits of a Literary and Religious Education, will naturally look down, with an indulgent Eye, on Places and Persons set apart for Purposes so honourable and important. And your antient and loyal University of Oxford, ever faithful to Monarchy on the most trying Occasions, for their Part humbly hope to render themselves not unworthy of your Royal Protection and Favour, by their assiduous Endeavours, in their several Stations and Capacities, to answer the End of their Institution, the Promotion of Loyalty, Learning, and Religion.

Given at our House of Convocation this seventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, 1760.

To which Address His Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious Answer.

YOUR Assurances of Zeal, and Affection, for My Person and Government, are very acceptable to Me. Sound Principles of Religious and Civil Duties, early instilled into the Minds of Youth, and confirmed by Examples of True Piety, and Loyalty, in so eminent a Seat of Learning, cannot fail to diffuse the happiest Influences on Church and State; And will always ensure to You My constant Protection, and Favour.

Leicester-House, November 14.

This Day the Reverend Dr. Browne, Vice-Chancellor, and the other Members of the University of Oxford, who before waited on His Majesty at St. James's, were introduced to Her Royal Highness the Princess Dowager of Wales, by Sir William Irby, Bart. Her Vice-Chamberlain; when the Vice-Chancellor made the Compliments of the University to Her Royal Highness in the following Speech.

May it please Your Royal Highness,

TO accept the Condolance of the University of Oxford on the melancholy Occasion of His late Majesty's Death; and to permit us to express our most sincere Congratulations on His present most Gracious Sovereign's Accession to the Throne of His Ancestors. A Prince! whose Abilities, being so happily cultivated under your Royal Highness's Inspection, cannot fail to add a Lustre to the British Crown, and adorn that exalted Station of Life, in which Providence hath placed Him. A Prince! whose Learning, Virtue and Piety will ever render Him the Darling of His Subjects at Home, and universally admired and revered Abroad; and whose promising Reign commences with an auspicious Omen, the glorious Success of His Allies.

Your faithful University of Oxford retains a grateful Sense of the many Favours vouchsafed to them from your Royal Highness and your much-lamented Consort; most humbly requesting the Continuance of, what they will ever studiously endeavour to merit, the Patronage and Protection of your Royal Highness, and of your most Illustrious Family.

To which her Royal Highness was pleased to return the following Answer.

I Return you My hearty Thanks for this strong Mark of your Affection to Me; and feel most sensibly the Duty and Attachment you express to the Person and Government of the King My Son.

They had all the Honour to kiss her Royal Highness's Hand.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of the City of Bath, has been presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Viscount Ligonier, and the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Pitt, their Representatives in Parliament:

Parliament: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Common Council of your Majeſty's City of Bath, in your County of Somerſet, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty upon the ſudden and unexpected Loſs of our late moſt Excellent Sovereign, whoſe End, though it can never be ſufficiently deplored by his Subjects, deſerves however in the Hiſtory of human Life to be accounted fortunate: For after that good Prince had continued through a Courſe of happy Years to protect his People in their juſt Rights, and to aſcert the Honour of His Crown with equal Wiſdom and Dignity both at Home and Abroad, He at laſt finiſhed His Period without a Pang, univerſally beloved, honoured and lamented.

This heavy Loſs, at ſo critical a Conjuncture as the preſent, while the Kingdom is engaged in a bloody and expenſive War, would be enough to weigh down our Hearts with Sorrow: But when we look up to your Majeſty's perſonal Virtues and Accompliſhments, and ſee the Scepter transferred to a Deſcendant of the ſame Illuſtrious Houſe, our Grief is at once diſpelled, and we are enabled with Joy to congratulate your Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms.

It is with the higheſt Satisfaction that we behold your Majeſty aſcend the Throne with the univerſal Acclamation and Conſent of your People: And we already feel the happy Effects of your Majeſty's Rule in that gracious Declaration, wherein you have been pleaſed to give us a moſt endearing Teſtimony of your Love to this your native Country; and to aſſure us, that you will not only preſerve, but endeavour to ſtrengthen the Conſtitution both in Church and State: For which Act of voluntary Grace your People are already become bound by Gratitude to your Majeſty, as well as by Duty and Inclination.

We are ſenſible that although your Majeſty muſt feel with Concern the Calamities of an expenſive War, yet we are perſuaded that your Majeſty, in Concert with your Allies, will purſue it vigorouſly; and, with the Bleſſiug of Providence, proſperouſly, till you have obtained for your Subjects a laſting and honourable Peace.

We therefore put up our Prayers to the Almighty, that your Majeſty's Reign may commence even more glorioufly than your Illuſtrious Grandfather's was finiſhed: That your Name may become more renowned by a Series of new Victories, and that our Poſterity may live to ſee the Glory, and enjoy the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Government. In Teſtimony whereof we have hereto ſet our Common Seal this Eleventh Day of November, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty.

St. James's, November 12.

This Day the Judges, Advocates, and Proctors, of Doctors Commons, waited on His Majeſty with the following Addreſs of Congratulation and Condoleance: They were introduced to His Majeſty by the moſt Reverend Father in God the Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Judges and Advocates of Doctors Commons, with the Proctors Exercent in your Majeſty's Eccleſiaſtical and Admiralty Courts, do, with our moſt profound Duty, approach your Royal Preſence, humbly begging Leave, amidſt the univerſal Joy of your Subjects, moſt ſincerely to congratulate your Majeſty on your Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms.

The very early Aſſurances which your Majeſty has graciouſly condeſcended to give your People, that the Preſervation of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, ſhall ever be your chief and principal Concern, is our greateſt Conſolation, under the ſudden and afflicting Loſs of your Majeſty's Royal and moſt Illuſtrious Grandfather, of whoſe equitable and prudent Adminiſtration and Government we ſhall ever retain the moſt ſenſible and grateful Remembrance.

Permit us, dread Sir, with all Humility, to aſſure your Majeſty, that it ſhall ever be our conſtant Study, and earneſt Endeavour, in our ſeveral Stations, to ſupport your Royal Crown and Dignity, and by enforcing the due Obſervance of your Majeſty's Eccleſiaſtical and Maritime Laws, as well to maintain the Supremacy of your Crown in theſe your Realms, as your undoubted Sovereignty of the Seas, which the many ſignal Victories obtained by your Majeſty's Fleets, during the Courſe of the preſent War, have ſo nobly and glorioufly vindicated and confirmed.

May Almighty God always direct your Majeſty's Councils; go forth with your Fleets, and Armies; prolong your Reign with Honour, and ſoon vouchſafe to your moſt gracious Majeſty the Glory of eſtabliſhing for your People, a firm, a laſting, and honourable Peace.

They were received very graciouſly, and all had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales, by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Eſq; and Jarrit Smith, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament; being introduced by Sir William Irby, Bart. Her Royal Highneſs's Vice-Chamberlain: Which Addreſs Her Royal Highneſs was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales.

May it pleaſe your Royal Highneſs,

THE Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to condole with your Royal Highneſs upon the Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign; and to offer their ſincere and hearty Congratulations upon the Acceſſion of your Illuſtrious Son to the Throne of His Anceſtors, and to the Government of this His Native Country.

God has made your Royal Highneſs a happy Inſtrument of conveying thoſe Bleſſings to us, which cannot fail to diſtinguiſh the Reign of a Monarch deſcended from a double Line of Anceſtors, who, from the moſt diſtant Periods of Hiſtory, have ſtood forth the Aſſerters of Freedom, and the Champions of true Religion.

After Divine Providence had ſnatched from our Hopes, his much beloved and much lamented Father, thoſe Seeds of heroic Virtue, implanted in His Nature, were in his tender Youth nouriſhed by your Parental Care, which have ſince opened and diſcloſed themſelves to the Eyes of an admiring People: Firmneſs of Mind, and Sweetneſs of Manners, were the early and auſpicious Preſages of Fortitude in Action, and Clemency in Rule. That theſe may be the Characteriſticks of His Reign, and that your Royal Highneſs may long live a happy Witneſs of the Glories derived from them, is the hearty Prayer of your Royal Highneſs's faithful and moſt devoted Servants, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the City of Durham, from a grateful Remembrance of the many Bleſſings we enjoyed under the Government of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, beg Leave, in the moſt dutiful Manner, to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather; a Loſs to this Nation which your Majeſty alone could poſſibly repair.

It would but aggravate our Sorrow particularly to enumerate the Virtues of that moſt excellent Prince, Prince. Your Majeſty's immediate Succeſſion obliges us to moderate our Grief, and acknowledge the extraordinary Care of Providence, in ſecuring to us the Continuance of our Happineſs, by permitting your Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors.

Your Majeſty's moſt gracious Declaration to your Council demands a more than ordinary Return of Gratitude for that tender and paternal Affection which you have been pleaſed to expreſs for our Religion, Laws, and Liberties; and as the Enjoyment of our Religious and Civil Rights is a Bleſſing moſt dear and valuable to a free People, and the peculiar Privilege of this Nation, we cannot ſufficiently acknowledge your Majeſty's Goodneſs in this your ſolemn Reſolution, to make the Good of your People your chief and conſtant Care.

And though your Majeſty has found your Kingdom involved in a bloody and expenſive War, we make no Doubt but that, by the Steadineſs and Vigour of your Councils, you will bring it to a glorious Concluſion; and by an Honourable and Laſting Peace lay a ſolid Foundation, not only of the Security and Glory, but even of the Eaſe and Tranquility of your Government, and that of your Majeſty's Poſterity; for which we offer up our moſt ardent Prayers, that it may for ever continue to reign after your Majeſty on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, and in the Hearts of a People truly happy and gratefully ſenſible of their being ſo.

Given under our Common Seal this fourth Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the city of Norwich, has been preſented to His Majeſty: which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens, and Commonalty of the City of Norwich, in Common Council aſſembled, ever zealouſly attached to your Auguſt Houſe, humbly beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of our late Sovereign, under whoſe auſpicious and glorious Reign theſe Kingdoms enjoyed the greateſt Bleſſings.

Your faithful Subjects muſt have more ſeverely felt this great Loſs, had not Providence been careful of their future Happineſs, by fixing the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms in your Royal Perſon; We therefore moſt humbly entreat your Majeſty to accept of our earneſt and ſincereſt Congratulations, on your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors.

The Declaration, which your Majeſty has moſt graciouſly been pleaſed to make, confirms us in the Opinion we early entertained, of your Regard to the Conſtitution of this Kingdom, and Attention to the true and commercial Intereſts of your Subjects.

May the Almighty ever crown with Succeſs your wiſe and vigorous Meaſures, ſupported by the united Efforts of your faithful People, in carrying on this juſt and neceſſary War, in the Manner which to your Majeſty ſhall ſeem moſt effectual to bring on an honourable and laſting Peace.

May your Majeſty's Reign be long and proſperous; and may there never be wanting one of your illuſtrious Family, to ſupport and tranſmit to the lateſt Poſterity, the civil and religious Liberties of this Nation.

We earneſtly requeſt your Majeſty to accept this our Aſſurance of Zeal for your Sacred Perſon, and our Readineſs on all Occaſions to teſtify our Duty by every Act of Loyalty and Obedience.

Given under our common Seal this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of our Lord, One tuſand ſeven h u ndred and ſixty.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Northampton, has been preſented to His Majeſty: which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Northampton, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Northampton, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty, full of Condoleance on the Death of your illuſtrious Grandfather, whoſe wiſe and princely Qualifications for Government, and whoſe glorious Exerciſe of them during the whole Courſe of his Reign, for the general Good of his Subjects, are moſt gratefully acknowledged, and honoured throughout all his Dominions.

With this Addreſs of Condoleance, be pleaſed to accept our moſt ſincere Congratulations on your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Dominions.

We, ſituated in the Midſt of your Majeſty's Engliſh Subjects, find every Heart around us rejoicing, at having a Prince upon the Throne of Great Britain, inheriting every amiable Virtue of your Royal Anceſtors.

From ſuch innate Endowments of your Royal Mind, cultivated to Perfection, with the greateſt Wiſdom and tendereſt Care of a Royal Mother, from the experienced Integrity of your Majeſty's Councils, and from the general Approbation of your Majeſty's Government, and of our Conſtitution both in Church and State, we pleaſe ourſelves with the promiſing Hopes of your Majeſty's enjoying an happy Reign over an united, loyal, and affectionate People.

We aſſure your Majeſty, that we are ſteady in our Attachments to your Royal Perſon and Family, and ſhall be zealous in our Endeavours for the Support of your Crown; and we join in fervent Wiſhes, that your Majeſty's Reign may be long and proſperous, and that there never may be wanting one of your Auguſt Houſe, to rule the Scepter of theſe Kingdoms to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our common Seal this Twefth Day of November, 1760.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, has been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the Town of Lancaſter, in Common Council aſſembled, from a grateful Remembrance of the many valuable Bleſſings we enjoyed under the Reign of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, beg Leave moſt heartily to condole with your Majeſty upon the Death of your late Royal Grandfather; a Loſs to theſe Kingdoms which your Majeſty alone could alleviate and repair.

The continued Courſe of Felicity ſo long enjoyed by theſe Nations, obliges us with all Obedience and Gratitude, to acknowledge the deep Senſe we have of our preſent and future Happineſs, and to beſeech your Majeſty to accept our moſt ſincere Congratulations upon your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms.

Your Majeſty's tendr Affection for your native Country, and your moſt gracious and ſolemn Declaration at your firſt Entrance into Government, that you will make it the Buſineſs of your Life to promote in every Thing the Glory and Happineſs of

theſe Kingdoms, and to preſerve and ſtrengthen both the Conſtitution in Church and State, claims our moſt ſincere and dutiful Acknowledgments; and may juſtly be depended upon from a Prince, deſcended on both Sides from a Race of Heroes, who ſo early and ſo undauntedly ſtood forth, and diſtinguiſhed themſelves in the Cauſe of Liberty and Religion.

Given under the Common Seal of the Town of Lancaſter this Seventh Day of November, in the Year of Lord, One Thouſand Seven Hundred and Sixty.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt faithful and obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Town of Southampton, in Common Council aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Sacred Perſon with Hearts deeply affected with the great Loſs theſe Kingdoms have ſuffered by the ſudden and lamented Death of our late moſt gracious Sovereign, your Majeſty's Royal Grandfather, the Parent of His People; a Loſs, which could not be enough deplored, did it not leſſen to our View, when we behold your Majeſty ſucceeding to the Crown, whoſe Greatneſs of Mind, ſound Judgment, and avowed Love of this your native Country, and its Conſtitution in Church and State, will now ſhine forth to the neighbouring Nations, and convince them, that though we have loſt a King, grown old in Honour and Renown, we have gained another, who, in the Prime of Life, poſſeſſes Qualifications which muſt render him formidable to His Enemies, reſpected by his Allies, beloved and honoured by his Subjects.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Town of Kingſton upon Hull, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with our ſincereſt Addreſſes of Condoleance on the Loſs which your Majeſty and the whole Nation have ſuſtained by the Demiſe of our late moſt Gracious Sovereign your Royal Grandfather. As never Prince deſerved more highly of his Subjects, it would be the greateſt Ingratitude in them not to expreſs a ſuitable Degree of Sorrow on this Occaſion: But at the ſame Time, we muſt not be inſenſible of the Joy and Happineſs that are ſet before us, in ſeeing His Crown placed on the Head of a young accompliſhed Prince, lineally deſcended from him, and diſtinguiſhed with the ſame Great and Eminent Virtues, which ſhone ſo conſpicuous in him. Permit us therefore, Great Sir, to expreſs our Joy and moſt hearty Congratulations on your happy Acceſſion to the Throne of theſe Kingdoms, with the univerſal Acclamations of your Subjects; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our conſtant Duty and Loyalty, and our utmoſt Endeavours to promote the Glory and Happineſs of your Reign: And we beſeech your Majeſty to accept our warmeſt Wiſhes, that it may pleaſe the Almighty, who proſpered the Arms of your immediate Royal Predeceſſor with ſo many and ſignal Succeſſes, to continue his Bleſſings to your Majeſty, and give you the Glory of putting an End to the War, in which the Nation has been long juſtly engaged, by an Honourable and Laſting Peace; and that your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of it, in Health and Proſperity, bleſſed with the Love of a happy and grateful People.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of this your antient Borough, beg Leave to condole with your Majeſty on the Death of our late moſt gracious King, your Royal Grandfather; under whoſe Reign your Majeſty's faithful Subjects were truly happy; and whoſe glorious Memory will always be dear to them, and to their lateſt Poſterity.

So great a Loſs could not but affect your People with the moſt ſincere Grief. The Goodneſs of Providence does however ſet before them the moſt pleaſing Proſpect of continued and increaſing Happineſs; ſince we ſee in your Majeſty, a Prince endued with every Virtue requiſite to adorn a Throne, and bleſs a Nation.

The Publick Sorrow is hereby turned into univerſal Joy, and Congratulation to your Majeſty, on your happy Acceſſion. What can a loyal and grateful People have more to wiſh, than that your Majeſty's Reign may be proſperous and laſting; not doubting but that a peculiar Providence will attend your Sacred Perſon, who gives us ſuch early Proofs of being a Father to your People, and a Bleſſing to Mankind.
